

THE DEWEY SIMMONS HOME—Neighbors and friends of the Dewey Simmons family continue the home building project for the invalid man and his wife and son who are residents of the Tunnel Hill community. Actual work on the construction began Saturday, March 9, and although work has been slowed by the rainy weather, the basement walls are completed and a crew of carpenters were busy Monday laying the floor sills and other wood work. The carpenters included seven from Carpenters Local 803, Metropolis—Herschel Wood in charge, Tyre Johnson, Guy Wilcox, Forest Morlan, Earl Schmidt, Bob Pergande and Albert Wilkins. The other two carpenters were Cleo Albert and Dolph Rushing. Mr. Wood stated Local 803 would furnish another crew of carpenters today and the sub floor and studding should be completed. The local will furnish crews two more days later in the project to assist in the finishing. Contributions of both building materials and money are still needed to complete the work of making a modern home for the invalid young man—Dewey Simmons—and his wife and son. Workmen volunteering their services were dinner guests of Mrs. Barney Fitzgerald (Lulu Belle of Johnson County), who sparked the idea of the home building project. (Daily Register Staff Photo)

Hodge Hotel Sold for $575,000

SPRINGFIELD (AP)—Orville E. Hodge's Esquire Hotel at Fort Lauderdale, Fla., was sold Monday to C. A. Pitts, Miami, Fla., for $575,000.

Circuit Judge De Witt S. Crow signed a decree authorizing the sale to Pitts, and State Auditor Elbert S. Smith, as trustee of the Hodge assets, signed the hotel over to Pitts.

Under terms of the sale, the state also will get all the money made by the hotel since last Aug. 31, when former State Auditor Hodge and his wife turned over their assets to the state as restitution for Hodge's looting of the state treasury.

Asst. Atty. Gen. Robert D. Oxtoby who represented the state said this would bring the state a considerable amount of money above the sale price, since the period involved includes the "season" in Florida when rates are highest and the hotel would have its greatest rate of occupancy.

Mrs. Hodge has been living in the $100-a-day penthouse suite of the hotel and had refused to leave the hotel. Under terms of the sale her eviction or continued occupancy of the hotel is Pitts' responsibility.

Cost of Living At New High for Seventh Month

WASHINGTON (UP)—The government reported today that the cost of living reached a new record for the seventh straight month in March.

It brought automatic wage hikes of 1 to 3 cents an hour for 1,400,000 workers.

The government also reported that the purchasing power of the average factory worker's pay check declined in March for the second month in a row. The decline wiped out gains made in buying power since March, 1956.

The Bureau of Labor Statistics' price index rose 2 of 1 per cent between February and March to 118.9 per cent of average 1947-1949 prices. The index was 3.7 per cent higher than a year ago.

The rise means a 3-cent hourly pay raise for nearly one million railroad workers on May 1 under semi-annual wage escalation provisions in their wage contracts. Another 400,000 workers scattered through the aircraft, electrical, and a variety of other industries also will get some pay raises under similar clauses.

The BLS reported that average weekly take-home pay—earnings after federal taxes—for factory workers declined by more than 30 cents between February and March. The decline, it said, reflected a drop in the average work week.

Receives Life Sentence for Murdering Wife

MOUND CITY, Ill. (AP)—A former Mound City minister who preached a sermon after murdering his wife last March 11 was sentenced to life imprisonment Monday.

Judge Harold L. Zimmerman imposed sentence on P. B. C. Lewis, 64, after conferring with defense and prosecution attorneys.

"Why fight a thing when you transgress God's law," Lewis said after hearing the sentence.

Lewis murdered his wife, Birdie Roe, 56, and then drove to Brooklyn, Ill., where he delivered a sermon. His wife was found lying on a bed, beaten and shot.

Probe Deaths of Elderly Couple

VANDALIA, Ill. (AP)—Authorities today investigated the deaths of an elderly couple in what was believed to be a murder and suicide.

The body of Wyatt F. Bunce was found hanging from a rope in a rear apartment of their home. His wife, Nancy, lay nearby. Both were about 76 years old.

The two were discovered by Marguerite Green, Fayette County school nurse and tenant in their home, when she returned from an Easter vacation Monday.

Coroner Mark Miller said he believed the couple died Sunday. He set an inquest for May 7.

Bunce was a watchman for the Johnson-Stephens and Shinkle Shoe Co. here.

AUGUSTA, Ga. (AP)—President Eisenhower summoned Secretary of Labor James P. Mitchell today to a conference here Thursday on legislation the administration may recommend to protect union funds from racketeering.

James C. Hagerty, Eisenhower's press secretary, said the President and the Cabinet member would consider legislation for recommendation to this session of Congress.

Editors Urged To Lead Fight On Inflation

NEW YORK (AP)—William Dwight, president of the American Newspaper Publishers Assn., told ANPA convention delegates today that publishers must take the lead in fighting "the threat of inflation."

Dwight, president of the Holyoke (Mass.) Transcript-Telegram, told a discussion group of small newspaper publishers that inflation has become a "major concern" of the nation's newspapers as publishing problems grow "more complex" each year.

"There is no group in the land who can do more to fight inflation," Dwight said. "This system of peoples' capitalism we have developed in the United States must apply its full powers and resources to the cause of halting the trend that can only lead to the destruction of our assets."

David D. Lindsay Jr., president and publisher of the Sarasota (Fla.) Herald-Tribune, told a meeting of publishers that medium sized newspapers that publishers face "a constantly rising curve of costs in all the labor and materials that go into our newspapers." He said recent ANPA reports show average newspaper wages and cost of newsprint up 25 per cent over 1950.

The ANPA 71st annual convention got down to business today with a series of meetings devoted to discussions of problems of newspapers of various size categories. The convention will run through Thursday.

More than 1,200 executives of daily newspapers from the United States, Canada, Hawaii and Puerto Rico have registered for the three-day convention at the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel. Meetings of United Press, Associated Press and International News Service executives are being held concurrently.

File Motions to Quash Indictments In Colson Case

A motion to quash three indictments charging Aaron Colson with reckless homicide today held up his trial, scheduled to start this morning in circuit court.

Atty. D. F. Rumsey, counsel for Colson, filed motions to quash on grounds that the indictments did not bear the names of witnesses, as is provided by law.

State's Attorney Robert V. Wilson asked Circuit Judge Harold L. Zimmerman for time to prepare for arguments, which was granted, and a date will be set later for the court to hear the arguments.

Colson, from Murray, Ky., is charged with reckless homicide in the highway deaths July 23, 1955, of Tillman Reed, Hattie Reed and Louis Hughes.

Dulles Says U. S. Will Report Suez Canal Negotiations to UN Security Council

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of State John Foster Dulles said today the United States plans to report to the United Nations Security Council this week on its Suez Canal negotiations with Egypt.

Dulles told a news conference that the report may be presented Wednesday or Thursday.

He said it seems appropriate, now that the canal is open, that there be greater public knowledge of the Suez problem. Therefore, he said, it seems appropriate to the United States that an early report be made to the Security Council on the Suez Canal negotiations with Egypt.

Dulles emphasized that he believes it better to report on the negotiations than to take the case to the Security Council in a controversial way.

He said he is in the dark as to what Egypt's final canal terms will be. He said he did not know whether Egypt will publish these terms within the next 48 hours.

In a moderate tone, Dulles said

Hollingsworth Report Sees Prosperity

SPRINGFIELD (AP)—A forecast of continued prosperity for the coming two years was presented to members of the General Assembly today along with Gov. William G. Stratton's record-high budget of $2,244,091,350.

The forecast was prepared by Illinois Finance Director Morton H. Hollingsworth, who said that a cut in federal taxes was "not improbable" and that such a cut would help state finances.

Hollingsworth wrote that "no significant change" was expected in the volume of retail sales in the coming two years. Such sales "mainly support" the state's general revenue fund, he said.

"Revenue in fiscal 1959 may be slightly better than fiscal 1958 as consumer installment debt will then have ebbed and a revival of auto purchases may be expected," he said.

A federal tax cut would increase the take-home pay of Illinois workers, Hollingsworth noted, and thus would help stimulate retail sales and sales tax collections.

Stratton has estimated the sales and use taxes will produce about 500 million dollars over the next two years.

Hollingsworth's report also looked for improvement in the farm machinery and coal mining industries, described as the "soft spots" in the Illinois economy.

Stratton's detailed budget for the next two years was contained in a 440-page book.

Paul Brewer, 36, Arrested in Cab Near Eldorado

Sheriff, FBI Agents, Highway Police In On Questioning

Federal Bureau of Investigation agents, state policemen and county officers today questioned Paul Edgar Brewer, 36-year-old fugitive, in connection with armed robberies in St. Louis, Kansas City, Mo., Wichita, Kansas, and other places following his arrest north of Eldorado this morning.

Brewer, who said he had used the name "Paul Edgar Baugh" for about the past five years, was arrested on Route 45 north of the Eldorado city limits by State Police Sergeants Murray Stinson and Herbert Bramlet.

A state police radio message had told state officers to be on the lookout for a man who was supposed to be riding in a taxicab from Cape Girardeau, Mo., to Evansville, Ind., and the two state police sergeants saw the cab go through the Routes 45-142 intersections just south of Eldorado.

They followed the cab out of the congested area and then forced it to stop.

$700 In His Possession

The taxicab stopped and Brewer got out peacefully. He had $700 in his possession, officers stated.

The cab driver, who said Brewer gave him a fifty dollar bill to drive him to Evansville, was released and Brewer was brought to the Saline county jail, where he was questioned by the two highway sergeants, Sheriff William T. Barrett and two FBI agents who were called in on the questioning.

Sheriff Barrett said that Brewer specifically is wanted on the federal charge of unlawful flight to avoid prosecution, that he had been placed under a $7,500 bond in St. Louis.

Officers said that Brewer was questioned about a number of burglaries but that he refused to admit any of them.

An American Express investigator from St. Louis was scheduled to arrive in Harrisburg late this afternoon to talk to Brewer.

Martin Adds His Voice to Cut-the-Budget Clamor

WASHINGTON (AP)—House Republican Leader Joseph W. Martin Jr. joined his powerful voice today to the cut-the-budget clamor and paved the way for a tax cut next year.

At the same time the growing GOP conflict over President Eisenhower's "modern Republicanism" erupted in sharp new clashes within the Republican Party.

Sen. Barry Goldwater (R-Ariz.) predicted the word "modern" will disappear like other Eisenhower phrases describing the GOP "and we'll be Republicans again come the fall leaves."

He attacked Eisenhower's aid-to-education and health programs and said he fears the liberal influence of the President's brother Milton and of corporation executive Paul Hoffman on the chief executive.

Martin, in a speech to a Republican County dinner in Troy, N. Y., Monday night, criticized the President's nearly 72-billion-dollar budget as "too high" and predicted it will be cut "substantially."

He said, without elaboration, that many of the administration's domestic proposals can be "postponed" until a "more appropriate time." A chief casualty of budget-cutting on the domestic front could be the President's $1,300,000,000 school construction program.

Praise for A Union

Editorial — BY BRUCE BISSAT
There is bound to be general praise for the United Automobile Workers' (UAW) action in setting up a watchdog board to guard against corruption and racketeering within the Union.

While at this stage the board as an effective instrument is only a promise and not a fact, it is fair to hail the move as the kind of healthy self-corrective that most befits free American institutions. In the past, labor unions have not always been ready to acknowledge their failings. But the setting up of this body by the UAW is a frank recognition that real danger exists and must be met.

Walter Reuther, president of the union, believes his organization today is free of racketeering or corruption, yet he says the UAW leadership feels a responsibility to subject it to regular public scrutiny.

The nature and character of the review board established gives real hope that it will indeed be an effective, functioning group rather than mere "window dressing." The panel will consist of seven public members, all prominent citizens wholly divorced from the union itself. One member is Msgr. George G. Higgins, director of the Social Action Department of the National Catholic Welfare Conference.

He declared right off that those chosen to serve would not jeopardize their reputations by operating as rubber stamps for the union leadership. He expects the watchdogs to take shots at both UAW leaders and rank and file.

The board can conduct investigations and make findings on any matter involving possible violation of the AFL-CIO ethical code. And it is required to issue annual reports of its activities, thus giving both union members and the public a regular check on UAW operations.

There seems no reason to doubt the earnestness of Reuther and other UAW officials in establishing the watchdog board.

Furthermore, AFL-CIO President George Meany has lent his backing to the move, asserting that labor generally must manage its affairs in a way to command public respect. The price of its bigness, he says, is to "assume big responsibilities."

This attitude, plus the UAW action, represents a sane, statesmanlike beginning for organized labor down a new path. If the promise of these things is realized, if other big unions follow the UAW's lead, then the sordid disclosures of past weeks—and those still to come—will not have been in vain.

"I Disagree, Edgar—But I'll Defend Your Right to Say It"

The WASHINGTON MERRY-GO-ROUND

by DREW PEARSON

DREW PEARSON Says: GOP Senators Hold Secret Meeting To Probe Lone AFL Senator; Sen. Pat McNamara Of Michigan Is Object Of GOP Colleagues' Secret Huddle; Congressman Metcalf Advises The Doctors To Stick To Medicine, Not The Law.

WASHINGTON. — Their Democratic colleagues don't know it, but Republican members of the Senate Rackets committee are trying to cook up an investigation they hope will embarrass the lone senator who belongs to the A. F. of L.—Pat McNamara of Michigan, Democrat.

It's not supposed to be known, but three GOP members—Irvings of New York, Barry Goldwater of Arizona, and Karl Mundt of South Dakota—held a secret huddle last week in Ives' office. Also attending were Goldwater's assistant, Dean Burch, and Ives' son and assistant George Ives.

They agreed to urge Chairman John McClellan, Arkansas Democrat, to investigate labor racketeering in Michigan. To persuade him, they will offer evidence that certain Detroit unions have made a racket of selling work permits to non-union members.

What they don't plan to tell McClellan is that Senator McNamara's former union, Pipefitters Local 636, is one of the alleged violators. McNamara, a Democrat, was president of the local until he ran for the Senate in 1954.

By going into Michigan, the Republicans hope to bring out various charges that might embarrass McNamara, who is also a member of the Senate Rackets committee. He was mixed up in a union building controversy, for example, that could be revived. His local defaulted on a $150,000 contract to buy a building that the former owner had purchased for only $50,000 three years earlier. The pipefitters lost $62,500 on the deal, and nine union members are still demanding an accounting.

SEN. POTTER SEES AMMUNITION

One of the nine, Delmer Mathews, is responsible for arousing Republican interest in McNamara's union. He wrote to Sen. Charlie Potter, Michigan Republican, summing up his grievances against McNamara and the Pipefitters.

Potter is running for re-election next year. As a Republican, he faces a tough fight in a state where Gov. Mennen "Soapy" Williams has built up a Democratic organization which has consistently defeated Republicans and which has strong labor support.

Potter saw the obvious possibility of knocking a hole in Michigan labor by airing Mathews' charges, so arranged for his attorney to meet with the GOP members of McClellan's Rackets committee. Potter, himself, did not attend the meeting.

At the meeting, Senator Ives pointed out that it is against the Senate's unwritten rules to investigate a fellow senator. It was agreed, therefore, to request a broad investigation into labor racketeering in Michigan. The charges against McNamara would then come out in the course of the investigation, Ives' son, George, suggested.

The Republicans agreed to go to Chairman McClellan with the charges about the work-permit racket. Some unions allegedly are charging $5 a month for work permits. The permits must be purchased in cash, and the worker must surrender his receipt each month to get another permit.

This investigation, the GOP trio hope, will lead to the Pipefitters, their colleague, Senator McNamara, and the end of Gov. Williams' Democratic power in Michigan.

TAKE TWO ASPIRINS!

An organized letter-writing campaign by doctors, against the proposed federal school-construction program, has finally driven Rep. Lee Metcalf (D., Mont.) to exasperation.

Fed up with "canned" letters, Metcalf got particularly sore after repeatedly reading the doctors' arguments about the alleged unconstitutionality of the school proposals.

Metcalf, a former associate justice of the Montana supreme court, wrote back to one:

"I appreciate the legal opinion of a doctor that federal aid to education is unconstitutional.

"My medical opinion as a lawyer, a former associate justice of the supreme court of Montana, and a member of the House committee which has had this matter up for four years, is that you should take two aspirins for the headache you are getting, worrying about the constitutionality of a program which predates our Constitution."

WASHINGTON PIPELINE

A federal grand jury in Trenton, N. J., has called for the records of drug firms which sold Salk vaccine to the government. The jury is probing into the peculiar manner in which five firms all charged practically the same price to the American public. This could be a criminal violation of the antitrust laws. . . . Ex-Congressman Victor Wickersham of Oklahoma, the big real estate dealer defeated for re-election last November, has been canvassing former colleagues in Congress to raise money for more real estate deals. . . . Congressman Mannie Celler of Brooklyn is quietly looking over the out-of-court settlements of antitrust cases agreed to by the Eisenhower administration during the past four years, especially those involving A. T. & T. A probable witness will be former assistant Attorney General Stanley Barnes, former head of the antitrust division, now a federal judge. Barnes had admitted dabbling in the stock of corporations whose cases were before him in the Justice Department.

Cadillac

Listen to What Its Silence Says!

Ever hear a motor car tell its own story?

Well, just get behind the wheel of a new 1957 Cadillac—head for your favorite stretch of highway—and listen!

Of course, the truth of the matter is that you won't actually hear anything. For a 1957 Cadillac in operation is as quiet as human skill and ingenuity can make it.

But imagine, if you will, all the wonderful things the car will be telling you through the voice of its own silence!

First of all, it will speak—and most eloquently so—of the soundness of Cadillac styling. For the car is so scientifically designed that even the onrushing wind is reduced to a gentle whisper.

It will tell you of the genius of Cadillac engineering. For every aspect of the car's brilliant performance goes about its work in soundless harmony. And it will reveal the care and the skill of Cadillac craftsmanship. For even when it travels the most neglected of byways, the car remains wonderfully silent.

If you have yet to sit at the wheel of a 1957 Cadillac and hear this wonderful story for yourself, then we urge you to delay no longer in doing so.

We hope you will visit your Cadillac dealer soon—spend an hour on the highway—and listen to the most eloquent message a motor car ever delivered on its own behalf!

Heape-Hart Marriage Solemnized at Vergennes

Miss Joan Darlie Heape, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Heape of Vergennes, became the bride of Jerome Paul Hart, son of Mr. and Mrs. Silas V. Hart of Harrisburg, on March 16 at 7 p. m., at the Evangelical United Brethren church in Vergennes. The double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Earl Michels.

White gladiolas and baby chrysanthemums softly lighted by tapers in candelabra were arranged before a background of palms at the altar.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a wedding gown delicately patterned white lace worn over tulle and taffeta. The gown was fashioned with a fitted bodice and mandarin collar with long tapered sleeves coming to a point over the hands, and a bouffant waltz-length skirt. The bride wore a satin and lace pillbox hat with a shoulder length illusion veil. Her shoes were white satin springloaders. She carried a cascade bouquet of red rose buds.

The bride chose as her only attendant, Miss Cheryl Chawshaw, of East St. Louis. Miss Chawshaw wore a waltz length gown of pale blue chiffon with a deep square neckline, fitted bodice and full short sleeves. The skirt was full, worn over crinolines. Her fitted feather-hat was of matching color. Her shoes were dyed-to-match satin springloaders. She carried a cascade bouquet of white roses.

The bridegroom chose his roommate, Sam Long, as best man. Gary Heape, brother of the bride, and Buddy Rogers, classmate of the groom, served as ushers. They wore dark business suits.

Mrs. Heape, mother of the bride, wore an ice blue princess style dress with matching hat. Her corsage was of pink rosebuds.

Mrs. Hart, mother of the bridegroom, chose a navy dress with black accessories. Her corsage was also of pink rosebuds.

Miss Priscilla Metcalf, music student at Southern Illinois University, sang "At Dawning," "With This Ring I Thee Wed," and "The Lord's Prayer," accompanied at the piano by Don Reed, also a student at SIU.

A reception was held in the lower room of the church immediately following the ceremony. Refreshments of cake and punch were served to 200 guests by Miss Cleo

Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Paul Hart

Caraway, Mrs. Joyce Re, Mrs. Aline Shupe, Mrs. Hazel Nausley, and Mrs. Bettye Doerr. Miss Carolyn Alstat was in charge of the guest book and Miss Pat Endres and Mrs. JoAnn Shimer, displayed the gifts.

After a honeymoon trip to Chicago, the couple will reside at 210 Hospital Drive, Carbondale.

The bride is a graduate of Vergennes Community high school and is now employed with the U. S. Department of Agriculture, Forest Service, in Carbondale.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Harrisburg Township high school and will receive his Bachelor's Degree in Music from SIU in June. Out of town relatives attending the wedding were: Chester Heape, Long Beach, Calif., Mrs. Dail Conrad, Decatur, Mr. and Mrs. S. V. Hart and grandson, Johnny Hart, and Mr. and Mrs. John Hart of Harrisburg.

Mrs. L. E. Davis has returned from Jacksonville, Fla., where she spent a few weeks visiting her son L. R. Davis and family. She was there to welcome upon arrival their baby son, Mark Tedwin, who is also a grandson of Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Carr, Eldorado.

Mrs. Earl Hise of 1000 Dorris street, was admitted to Lightner hospital, Monday, for minor surgery and hopes to return home today.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Hise and sons, Ronnie and Doug, and Mrs. Berl Hufstader were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Hufstader of East Peoria, for the Easter week end.

Open Deer Hunting Season is Proposed in Legislative Bill

SPRINGFIELD — The first open deer hunting season in Illinois since 1901 was requested by the State Conservation Department today in bills introduced in the General Assembly.

The proposed season on white-tail deer would allow hunting with bow and arrow from Oct. 1-15 this year and with shotguns on Nov. 1-3. The same dates would be allowed for bow and arrow hunting in 1958, but the shotgun season dates in 1958 would be Oct. 31 and Nov. 1 and 2.

Rifle hunting of deer would not be allowed.

HOLLYWOOD — (NEA) — On stage, Offstage and Upstage: Professors, movie stars, housewives and even 11-year-old boys are winning fortunes on television these days. But you haven't heard about the movie star who LOST a fortune — $210,000 — on TV. And it was HIS money, not a sponsor's!

Fellow by the name of Eddie Bracken.

No, he didn't flub a question. His timing was bad.

Ten years ago Eddie saw the handwriting on home screens and formed Hollywood's first telefilm production company. He made all sorts of pilot reels but couldn't sell a single show.

After three years the company folded.

"I lost $210,000," Eddie confessed to me the other day. "It wasn't that the shows were bad. It was just that I was the only one in Hollywood 10 years ago who believed in film for TV. I was too early. Now look at what's happening—film dominates television."

SHED NO TEARS for Eddie, though. He has been starring on stage and in TV and recouped part of his big TV losses investing in a Chicago electronics company. And he can laugh, at least, about the first $9,000 he lost as TV pioneer. He invested the money in a pilot reel, in color, featuring two Hollywood stars.

"We previewed the show," he tells it, "for several prospective sponsors and a flock of network executives. They were worried about one of the stars because he had a reputation for hitting the bottle. I assured everyone he'd sworn off. I invited him to the screening, too, and he arrived roaring drunk. The prospective sponsors and the network fellows left after the screening and I never saw them again."

Review Progress

Stassen to Return to Disarmament Talks; Reports to Eisenhower

AUGUSTA, Ga. (UP)—President Eisenhower sent Harold E. Stassen back to the London disarmament talks today with reassurance of this country's belief that reduction in world arms must come a step at a time.

The President and his disarmament representative at the five-power talks in London talked for 75 minutes today. They explored the progress made to date toward some type of working agreement with Russia on a dependable start in the reduction of conventional or non-nuclear arms and the inauguration of an international inspection system.

Stassen left Augusta immediately after his early morning talk with the President and will stop in Washington for a brief afternoon meeting with Secretary of State John Foster Dulles before continuing on to London late in the day.

Reaffirms U. S. Policy

After the meeting, White House Press Secretary James C. Hagerty issued this statement:

"The President received from Mr. Stassen a review of the London talks. The President has followed these London discussions with interest. He had arranged with the secretary of state to have Mr. Stassen come to Augusta to give him a personal report.

"The President encouraged the United States delegation to follow through thoroughly in the resumed negotiations which will start again in London on Wednesday.

"The President reaffirmed that United States policy is, as stated by the secretary of state in his speech of yesterday, that:

"We consider that controls and reduction of arms are possible, desirable, and in the last reckoning, indispensable. It is not essential that controls should encompass everything at once. In fact progress is likely to come by steps carefully measured and carefully taken."

Source of Hope

Because the London talks have covered only about half of the agenda before the five powers, the President and Stassen both decided against any definite statement at this time and left all the talking to Hagerty.

The London talks, recessed for Easter but scheduled to resume Wednesday or Thursday, were a source of hope to the United States. For the first time in 11 years, the Russians seemed to be entertaining "serious" consideration of Western proposals for reducing the war potential of the big powers.

The participating countries in the U.N. disarmament subcommittee talks are the United States, Britain, France and Canada. The conference began March 18 and apparently will run into the early summer.

Arms Cuts Outlined

The three basic proposals before the conference:

—A reduction in non-nuclear armaments. The plan on the conference table in London, yet to be agreed upon, would call for a 10 per cent reduction in non-nuclear arms this year, 15 per cent in the following year. Non-nuclear arms would include fighting naval surface craft, submarines, tanks, aircraft and artillery. With such a reduction in mechanical arms obviously would come a reduction in military manpower.

—On the nuclear side, a cut-off date for producing weapons powered by fissionable material. This would include atomic and hydrogen bombs. The United States would be willing to institute an inspection system by March 1, 1958, and agree to a cut-off in weapons production 30 days later. If an inspection system is set up for some later date, this country is willing to follow through on a cut-off date 30 days later.

—The President's "Open Skies" theory of aerial inspection of military installations of Russia and the Western Allies was first made in Geneva in July, 1955. His thought then was on a country-wide basis, letting planes from both big powers map opposing countries from the air.

Cairo Reports Resignation of Jordan Premier

By United Press

Cairo Radio reported without confirmation that Jordan's moderate Premier Hussein Khalidi resigned today in the face of opposition from leftist elements. The broadcast was heard in London.

The broadcast quoted Egypt's semi-official Middle East News Agency. The agency often is used as a propaganda mouthpiece by Egypt, which would like to see the uneasy Jordan situation kept in a state of turmoil.

The broadcast said Khalidi, who took office last week following the ouster of pro-Egyptian, pro-Soviet Premier Suleiman Nabulsi, handed King Hussein his resignation after consulting with his cabinet.

There was no immediate confirmation of the Cairo report from Amman, Jordan's capital, where correspondents are subject to strict censorship.

Earlier today Amman dispatches said Soviet propagandists have intervened in Jordan in an effort to bring down the government.

Boy Swimming Off Florida is Bitten by Shark

ORMOND BEACH Fla. (UP)—Michael Carpenter, 17, was severely bitten on the left leg by a shark Monday while swimming some 75 yards from shore north of here.

The boy, vacationing here with his parents from Monterey Park, Calif., was pulled from the surf by a lifeguard and rushed to the Ormond Beach Osteopathic Hospital. He was listed in fair condition.

Lifeguard Gordon Foote said Carpenter told him he saw the dorsal fin, body and open mouth of the shark before it struck him. The boy estimated the fish was about 13 feet long.

The muscles, bones and tendons of the youth's left leg above the ankle were mangled, doctors said. They said the boy lost a lot of blood.

Authorities said it was the first case they could recall of a fish attacking a human in about two years.

House Committee Sets Hearing On 65-Mile-Hour Speed Limit Bill

SPRINGFIELD (UP)—The Legislature came back to work today with a 12 day Easter vacation behind it and a 10-week grind and most of its work still ahead.

More than 1,000 bills have already been introduced in the General Assembly, but no major legislation—including Gov. William G. Stratton's administration program—has yet been acted on.

Several key items in the governor's program were slated for committee consideration this week including his fixed speed limit proposal, the 238-million-dollar bond issue for construction at state colleges and universities and mental hospitals, the crime commission bills, annual legislative sessions, abolishment of the state treasurer's office as an elective post, and the right to vote for 18 years olds.

The House Motor Vehicles Committee today scheduled a hearing on Stratton's bill for a flat speed limit of 65 miles an hour daytime and 55 miles at night for cars, with lower limits for trucks. The committee also set a hearing on the governor's request for 500 additional state policemen as part of his traffic safety program.

Western Illinois Fair to Sell $1 Bills for 89 Cents

GRIGGSVILLE, Ill. (UP)—Where can you do better than this? Visitors to the Western Illinois Fair here June 30-July 4 will be able to buy genuine $1 bills for 89 cents.

A total of 25,000 of the greenbacks will be on hand for sale, with the only restriction being that a purchaser may buy only one dollar at a time, and if he wants more he will have to go to the end of the line and come through again.

The bills will be on sale one hour each day during the fair, from noon to 1 p. m., fair officials said.

The dollar bills are being sold at cut-rates to "prove that there will be at least one genuine bargain offered the public in 1957," fair officials said.

All purchasers must have the correct change so that the sale of dollar bills can go on quickly. A money changing booth will be set up next to the sales cage on the midway of the fairgrounds as an "added accommodation."

Last year the fair advertised it would hold the first bull fights ever held in Illinois. But the fair got into hot water with the Society for Prevention of Cruelty to Animals and Gov. William G. Stratton and the bull fights were changed to a "bull dodging" contest.

Need People's Vote

The House Executive Committee Wednesday will hear the governor's bill for a permanent state crime investigating commission, the bond issue, appointment rather than election of the state treasurer, annual rather than biennial sessions of the Legislature and the 18-year-old vote.

These last three would require constitutional amendments and thus would have to be voted on by the people in 1958.

Also slated for committee action this week as the Legislature picks up speed are bills to abolish the death penalty in Illinois, ban "organizational picketing" where a union does not represent a majority of the employees of a firm and is using picket lines as a means of organizing the workers, and raise the pay of legislators from $5,000 a year to $6,000 a year.

A flood of appropriation bills to carry out Stratton's record-high $224,091,350 budget also is expected to start coming in this week.

West Frankfort Area To Ballot June 1 on Unit School District

WEST FRANKFORT, Ill. (UP)—Voters in the West Frankfort area will ballot June 1 on whether to create a unit school district.

Franklin County Superintendent of Schools H. L. Browning set the election date Monday.

The territory involved is included in the Frankfort Community High School District or the West Frankfort Grade School District.

Proponents say the unit district would receive $71,000 more a year in state funds than the individual districts are now receiving.

File Charge of Reckless Homocide In Fatal Accident

MARION, Ill. (UP)—A charge of reckless homicide has been filed against Clarence L. Choate, 38, Aurora, in connection with a fatal wreck last Saturday near Creal Springs.

Williamson County Sheriff Carl Miller filed the charge today.

Choate was driving a car which left a curve and overturned. Arnold Brooks, 18, Aurora, was fatally injured and two other men hospitalized.

A coroner's jury Monday night called Brooks' death an accident but recommended that the wreck be investigated by a grand jury.

Choate declined to testify at the inquest.

"Mores" are ethical customs that have become so strongly established as to have the force of unwritten laws.

The Daily Register 30c a week

no matter how you look at it, the story stays the same!

Advertisers invest more money in Newspapers than in Magazines, Radio, TV and Outdoor combined!

The figures change but not the story. Last year advertisers spent a record $3,305,000,000 in newspapers—again surpassing their combined expenditures in TV, magazines, radio and outdoor.

The figures have changed, too, in daily newspaper circulation—now up to a new high of over 57,000,000. This growth enables newspaper advertisers—national, regional and local—to penetrate anywhere in the nation.

How do advertisers rate leading media by the amount of money they spend? Here are the McCann-Erickson-Printers' Ink Preliminary Estimates of Advertising Expenditures for 1956, published on February 8, 1957:

Newspapers	$3,305,000,000
Television	1,255,000,000
Magazines	782,000,000
Radio	565,000,000
Outdoor	200,000,000

No matter how you look at it—from the vantage points of circulation, penetration or adaptability—newspapers continue to give the best buy for your money.

All business is local... and so are all newspapers.

12 Young People Received Into Methodist Church Membership

Twelve young people who had been attending a church membership class under the instruction of Mrs. C. E. Wing, were received into church membership at the Easter morning worship service of the First Methodist church. There was a meeting on Saturday evening when the parents and young people met with the Rev. W. L. Cummins at the church and the young converts were baptized.

Those received into the church were: Terry Lee Hickey, Howard Blades, Gary Owen, Tommy Wunderlich, Sam Parker Jr., David Piper, Miss Kathy Morris, Miss Mary Ann Barnhill, Miss Jill Lasersohn, Miss Judith Amberger, Miss Martha Coker and Miss Rosemarie Stain.

The infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Parker, named Jay Parker, was baptized at this service.

The Sunday evening service was a cantata, presented by the Chancel choir under the leadership of John Schork. "The Redeemer" was the cantata chosen, and Mrs. Robert Norman played the organ accompaniment.

First Baptist Church Licenses Bob Stump to Serve as Minister

The First Baptist church, combined with the Mission church, had an attendance of 617 at the Easter Sunday school service. There were 525 in the church proper and 580 worshippers at the morning preaching service. The Rev. R. J. Morman, pastor, presented Bob Stump to the congregation, and Bob gave testimony of his experience when he felt called to be a minister. He is a student of the Rolla School Mines at Rolla, Mo., but next year will enroll in the college at Georgetown, Ky., where he will prepare for the ministry.

Members of the Baptist church voted to license young Bob to serve as minister. With this license he can preach, perform marriages and conduct funerals, in fact, do everything required of a minister except administer communion or perform baptisms. These services will be added to his service at his ordination.

Thirty-two members of the Carrier Mills grade school chorus will participate in the All Southern Illinois vocal festival which will be held at the Webster Junior high school in Benton on April 26. The Carrier Mills grade school chorus, under the direction of Mrs. Rena Brackney, the music supervisor, includes 60 students from grades 5 through 8. Vernon, Marion, Benton, West Frankfort and others. The students will be divided into three respective choruses—Junior (5th and 6th grades), Senior (7th and 8th grades), and boys' (including boys with changed voices). These choruses will rehearse during the morning and afternoon in preparation for the grand concert which will be held at 7:30 p. m. The following students will take part in the three choruses:

John A. Ammon, Mary L. Black, Paul Davis, Karen Hartford, Maria Ingram, Kay Parsons, Peggy Hill, Judy Murphy, Johnny O'Keefe, Penny Stokes, Janis Dunaway, Kay Davis, Karen Davidson, Jane Fort, Alice Malone and Rita Sweet, representing the junior chorus; Judy Beal, Judy Fife, J. 10 Cities Most Likely Targets, Have Inadequate Warning Systems

WASHINGTON — The Civil Defense Administration has warned that 10 U. S. cities which would be likely targets in an atomic attack have "completely inadequate" public warning systems. They are Kalamazoo, Mich.; St. Petersburg, Fla.; Asheville, N. C.; Charleston, S. C.; Pierre, S. D.; Sioux Falls, S. D.; and the Texas cities of Dallas, Galveston, Laredo and Lubbock.

20.48 miles per gallon! That's the amazing mileage averaged by the 23 cars in this year's 1568-mile Mobilgas Economy Run!

These were brand-new 1957 stock cars with automatic transmissions. And they drove in city traffic as well as open road—steep mountain grades—desert heat and freezing cold... every extreme of driving conditions your car is likely to encounter in a full year!

Just follow the example of the Mobilgas Economy Run drivers... keep your car in good condition, drive sensibly, use New Mobilgas Special—powered with new top octane and gas-saving MC4 additives.

Try New Mobilgas Special—for improved, year-round performance that adds up to more miles per gallon!

Boy's Payments to Four Teenage Extortionists Wrecks Family Business

NEW YORK (AP) — A 15-year-old boy, terrified by threats to his mother and sisters, took so much money from his father's grocery store to pay four teenage extortionists that he almost bankrupted the business, it was revealed Sunday.

When Raymond Quinones learned that the $60 to $80 a week he paid the four bullies for a year had all but broken his father he went to the police. The payments had totalled more than $4,000, he said.

Raymond said the shakedown began a year ago when he was approached by John J. Gebbia, 18, and another youth, who threatened him and demanded $5.

Raymond gave them the money and they returned three days later with another youth to demand $15. This time, they said, they threatened to kill his mother, Esperanza, 37, and his 14-year-old sister, Guiones.

on three days of every week, he told police.

Raymond's father, Raymon, 40, told his family at breakfast Saturday that he was almost bankrupt and would have to sell the store. Raymond realized his pay-offs had caused the family's financial difficulties so he went to the police.

Two detectives accompanied him to the store Saturday night and gave him marked bills to pay the extortionists. A 15-year-old boy showed up to make the collection. He was arrested outside with two other 15-year-olds.

They were booked as juvenile delinquents and named Gebbia as the leader. They also admitted the shakedown, police said.

The Rare Adventure

by BERNARD FERGUSON

THE STORY: Allan Larg and his wife Mollie have left Scotland in search of traces of the Barbary pirate Al Merhametis, a half-mythical relation. Traveling by bus, they see Seknou, their island destination from the mainland and go aboard a ferry.

IV

The tall driver of the car climbed out of the driving seat and walked aft to the wheelhouse, the deck passengers making way for him deferentially, to pass the time of day with the skipper. Allan and Mollie eyed him with interest, trying to place him. He did not look like a Frenchman, nor like a Spaniard; Italian, they thought, or possibly Greek. As he turned into the wheelhouse, his hand on its corner to swing himself round, his eyes met theirs for a moment, nor did he look away at once, whereas Allan, to his own annoyance, found himself glancing away as if he had been caught staring—as indeed he had.

The skipper was steering for the village on the far side of the sound, the same as they had seen from the bus: evidently it was the other end of the ferry. It was less than 20 minutes before they reached the opposite side—no mere hamlet and jetty here, but a good-sized fishing village and harbor, with some much larger vessels of sea-going quality lying a little way off the jetty. The lounging policeman and the waiting bus, a twin to that which had brought them from Nail, were the only things in common with Marsa Yakoub; and the bus was better painted, and altogether in better trim, than its opposite number. The driver, too, was older and smarter; and although he spoke Arabic, his features were Hebraic. He came down to the boat, touched his chauffeur's cap to Allan, and said to him in French, "It is the Monsieur and Madame who are expected at the Hotel Asdrubal!"

"I don't think we are expected," said Allan, "but it's where we want to go." "That's it," said the driver, and had their suitcases retrieved from the boat and stowed.

Unlike the mainland, the Island of Seknou appeared to be remarkably fertile. There were no streams to be seen, but there were olive groves everywhere, and never, in all the Arab countries that he had visited, had Allan seen so many wells. Allan was on the lookout for something unfamiliar, but the first village they came to, which bore the sign Souk, look just like any other Arab village. While they were setting down passengers, there came the imperious sound of an American motor-car horn, and

Reds Stop Mizell to Beat Cardinals, 10-6; Mantle Leads Yankees to 15-6 Win

By United Press

The man and the team who produced the top slugging heroics of 1956 are off and running at last today—at the expense of a pair of “jinx” pitchers.

Mickey Mantle, the American League's triple crown winner, connected for his first homer of the season Monday night as the New York Yankees crushed the Washington Senators, 15-6, with a 16-hit barrage. Mantle's blow came off southpaw Chuck Stobbs, who held Mickey to three singles in 27 official times at bat last season.

The Cincinnati Redlegs, meanwhile, finally scored their first victory of 1957 when they defeated the St. Louis Cardinals, 10-6. The Redlegs had 14 hits and took advantage of six errors. In addition, they beat Wilmer (Vinegar Bend) Mizell, who topped them five times last year.

Big Sixth Inning

Mantle's homer gave the Yankees a 2-0 third-inning lead and the world champions wrapped up their fourth win in five games with a seven-run outburst in the sixth which was featured by Hank Bauer's grand-slam and a triple steal with Billy Martin on the scoring end. Whitey Ford yielded two runs in seven innings before retiring and picked up his second straight victory over the Senators.

Ed Bailey and Johnny Temple had three hits each to pace the Redlegs' attack which exceeded the run production of their four previous losses. Tom Acker, third of four Cincinnati pitchers, gained credit for the win although Raul Sanchez finished up. Stan Musial collected four hits for the Cardinals for the second time in five games.

The unbeaten Milwaukee Braves ran their winning streak to five games with a 9-4 victory over the Chicago Cubs; the Brooklyn Dodgers downed the Philadelphia Phillies, 5-1, and Willie Mays' three-run homer gave the New York Giants a 3-1 win over the Pittsburgh Pirates in the other National League games. The Kansas City Athletics topped the Detroit Tigers, 11-7, and the Baltimore Orioles scored a 7-5 decision over the Boston Red Sox in the other American League action.

Errors Help Dodgers

Hank Aaron and Joe Adcock hit homers and Bill Bruton had three hits to lead a 10-hit Milwaukee attack that paved the way for Bob Buhl's first win. Bob Rush suffered his second straight setback of 1957. The Dodgers, opening their seven-game schedule in Jersey City, profited from three unearned runs as they won their fifth decision in six games. Roger Craig picked up the triumph although Clem Labine retired the last five batters. Ex-Giant Jim Hearn was the victim of Philadelphia's loose support.

Ruben Gomez made it two in a row this year with a neat six-hit-ter marred only by Hank Foiles' pop-fly homer. Mays' homer came off Luis Arroyo in the third inning and gave the Giant center fielder three for the young campaign.

The Athletics blew an early four-run lead, but rallied for four runs in the ninth on only two hits for their third win in six games. Harry Simpson and Lou Skizas homered for Kansas City while Bill Tuttle knocked in five Detroit runs with a three-run homer and two sacrifice flies.

Pinch-hitter Bob Hale's fifth-inning sacrifice fly and Willie Miranda's run-scoring single in the seventh gave the Orioles their victory margin over Boston's Tom Brewer. Mike Fornieles, who turned in 2-3 hitless innings of relief, gained credit for the victory.

U.I. Alumni Team Strengthened for Tilt with Varsity

CHAMPAIGN, Ill. — The Alumni football team, which meets Illinois' varsity in first annual game here May 4, has been fortified with additional backs and ends.

Invitations have been accepted by Jim Valek, 1948 end, and Rex Smith, 1952 flanker. Smith's acceptance rounds out the 1951-52 combination of O'Connell-Ryan-Smith which broke almost every Big Ten record.

Backfield strength has been increased by acceptances from such Illinois players as Don Engels, quarterback of 1949-50-51 teams who later was a standout while in service; Bill Tate, star fullback of the 1952 Rose Bowl; Pete Bachorous, half-back star of 1951 and 1952 teams; and Al Brosky, All-American defensive safety who also played on the 1951 championship team.

Another famous Illinois pair will be reunited for the occasion. “Mickey” Bates has announced that he will participate, joining J. C. Caroline, with whom he shot into national prominence in 1953. Bates and Caroline led the 41-20 upset of Ohio State and helped bring Illinois a Big Ten title as sophomores that year.

Also returning from the 1953 team is fullback Ken Miller. Miller will rejoin Stan Wallace, with whom he teamed to form one of the finest one-two fullback combinations in Illinois' history.

Federal Judge Studies Action Against IBC

NEW YORK (AP)—The International Boxing Club, which has dominated the promotion of bigtime boxing for more than eight years, would either be wiped out or sharply reduced under proposals now being considered by Federal Judge Sylvester J. Ryan.

Ryan, who ruled on Feb. 6 that the IBC is guilty of monopolizing championship fights, received the proposals Monday both from the government and from the IBC.

They were in the form of suggested “final judgments” to be meted out by Ryan to the IBC. The government suggestion was sweeping—calling for the dissolution of the IBC and its branches and the removal of IBC officials James D. Norris and Arthur Wirtz from power in Madison Square Garden.

The IBC suggestion for its own punishment was, of course, much more lenient—leaving the club in business but barring its use of exclusive contracts with fighters, arenas, or radio and television outlets and limiting it to the promotion of four title fights per year for the next five years.

The next step in the court procedure will come on May 20 when Judge Ryan will hear oral arguments from both sides in support of their proposals. Then, some undetermined time later, Ryan will hand down his decision as to

SIU Nine Wins Doubleheader

CHARLESTON, Ill. (AP)—Southern Illinois took both ends of a double-header from Eastern Illinois Monday, 6-2 and 5-3.

Roy Ayers won the opener in the Interstate Collegiate Athletic Conference twin bill, and John Gilmore twirled a one-hitter in the seven-inning nightcap.

Eastern combined its lone safety with three SIU errors to lead 3-1 until Southern scored four runs in the fourth inning.

how the IBC should be punished.

The IBC then has the right to appeal the case to the Court of Appeals and the Supreme Court. The Supreme Court cleared the way for the present action against the IBC when it ruled that boxing, unlike baseball, is subject to the federal anti-trust laws.

Defendants in the case are the International Boxing Club of New York, Inc., the International Boxing Club of Illinois, Madison Square Garden Corp., Norris, and Wirtz.

The Methodist Church, with 9,180,428 members, is the Protestant denomination with the largest membership.

SOMETHING WONDERFUL HAS HAPPENED!

We asked folks in the Harrisburg area to describe their ideal beer, and now Griesedieck Brothers have brewed it—pleasantly light...completely satisfying!

Beer tastes are changing!

There's a big nationwide swing to lighter beer!

Thousands of folks interviewed in this area told us they wanted a pleasantly LIGHT beer. BUT it must also be completely satisfying.

That was a tough challenge!

To make a light beer, without sacrificing any of the real beer character and goodness, called on all our 240 years of brewing skill. We put more than four million dollars in new equipment and more than a year of tests against the problem.

Then something wonderful really happened!

TODAY, we have the beer that local people said they wanted—A PERFECTLY BALANCED BEER THAT IS PLEASANTLY LIGHT AND YET COMPLETELY SATISFYING—a delightfully refreshing beer brewed to suit the taste of the times—EXACTLY!

From the very first, you'll like the fresh, clean, inviting taste of today's G/B beer. Your FIRST glass will tell you it's completely satisfying. Your SECOND glass—And This Is Important—will prove today's G/B is mighty easy to stay with BECAUSE IT'S FAR LESS FILLING!

Today's G/B beer was not put on the market until it was proved to be outstandingly preferred in local taste tests against other beers!

We ask you to try and compare today's G/B beer and see for yourself if we haven't come up with a great beer that's truly pleasantly LIGHT and completely SATISFYING. See if today's G/B—the finest beer we ever brewed—isn't your kind of beer!

Astronomical Prizes May Spell Doom Of Big TV Quiz Program

BY DICK KLEINER
NEA Staff Correspondent

NEW YORK — (NEA) — Leave us take a long, hard look (because of space limitations, make it a short, soft one) at basic television economics. And with the help of Prof. Walt Frammer, we will show that the laws of TV economics spell an early doom to the upward spiraling of quiz show prizes.

Frammer is one of the pioneers of the audience participation show on TV. His "Strike It Rich" is still going strong—even though the top prize offered by that program is only $500.

"The quiz show," he says, "will always be popular, because of its strong element of human interest. But quiz show producers must face facts. They started because of economic reasons—they're easier to produce, cost less and generally guarantee a better audience than the more expensive, riskier dramatic and variety shows."

"But now prizes are getting astronomical. And they'll soon reach the point of diminishing returns. Already, they're approaching dramatic shows in cost. If the spiral continues, they'll soon cost more than dramatic shows—then watch the big switch."

Despite his words, Frammer is currently plotting a program called "Million Dollar Family." The prize, to a family that survives a year-long series of elimination contests, will be a million dollars. And it will be presented in the form of annuities to each member of the family, to keep taxes at a minimum. (Frammer, incidentally, keeps a tax firm and a covey of lawyers in his staff, to consider the increasingly-complex problem of quiz taxes.)

In summation, class, remember this—it's the money that makes the TV mare go, not any artistic considerations. A sponsor wants a show that will deliver a big audience at low cost. At the moment, quiz shows do the best job in that direction. Astronomical prizes may change all that.

WHO'S DOING WHAT? Ernie Kovacs: He's in a contract hassle with NBC—they want him to sign a contract calling for his services as "actor-writer-producer." He wants it to read the other way around: "producer-writer-actor." Thereon hangs a squabble. Patti Page: She'll make her dramatic TV debut on a U. S. Steel Hour production, "Upbeat," on June 19. She'll sing a song or two, of course. Peter Donald: He's the leading contender for the job of MC on Martha Rountree's resurrected "Leave It to the Girls," which Martha hopes to have on the air either this summer or next fall. Geoffrey Holder: CBS wants him to play a big part in Duke Ellington's giant production, "A Drum Is a Woman," due May 8. Denise Lor: On the Garry Moore show, she wandered out loud what Union Carbide Co. manufactured.

Chayefsky Eugene Conley

They showed her—sent her one of their man-made star sapphires. Ten carats, yet.

Paddy Chayefsky, author of "Marty" and "The Bachelor Party," among other TV-Hollywood successes, isn't overly impressed with the current state of TV dramatics.

"TV, in general," he says, "seems to be getting worse. Most of the dramas I've seen lately are all polish, with no furniture underneath. That's not a very good simile, but you know what I mean."

Actually, it's a very pleasant—and accurate—simile. The only problem is what to do about it. Chayefsky, himself, solves it by writing these days for other mediums.

He's working currently on a movie script. It's the first thing he's done that hasn't been designed originally for TV since he clicked on the old Philco program. Paddy is writing his movie script in three acts—"it's the only way I know how to write"—which should make an interesting production.

New Long Range Missiles May Be Sent Overseas

WASHINGTON (U) — Military observers believed today the United States plans to equip new bases overseas with a greatly improved version of the long-range Matador guided missile.

The belief was prompted by the Air Force's announcement Sunday night that an advanced model of the missile has been developed which can defy enemy jamming and "can be used over wide expanses of waters."

Earlier versions of the missile already have been sent to Germany. The Far East was considered a likely site for any new Matador bases overseas.

The Air Force in discussing such push-button weapons also disclosed that it plans to order the Bomarc long-range interceptor missile into production in the 1958 fiscal year.

The Bomarc was expected to have a range of about 250 miles and speeds of 1,500 miles an hour. It eventually may replace some piloted fighter planes in the nation's aid defenses.

The Air Force revealed its missile plans in a briefing for newsmen on procurement plans for the fiscal year starting July 1. During the 12-month period, it said, it plans to order 1,515 bombers, fighters, transports and trainers at a total cost of $2,746,900,000.

Eugene Conley, Metropolitan Opera star, takes operatic umbrage at Ed Sullivan for dropping the opera segments of his show because of a rating decline. Conley says it's unfair to blame a lower rating on just one portion of a multi-faceted show like Sullivan's. "Opera was here before Elvis Presley," Conley says, "and opera will be here after Elvis Presley."

When Nanette Fabray stars in a musical about a lady pitcher, "A Man's Game," on the Kaiser Aluminum Hour on April 23, the director will be Paul Lammers. This business of directing shows with a baseball background is old stuff to Lammers. Last year, he directed Warren Stevens in "Man On Spikes."

The trouble is that Lammers knows very little about baseball. When he got the "Man On Spikes" assignment, he hired himself out to the Polo Grounds and spent two weeks there, watching the New York Giants play. (Aside from a Dodger fan: that's no place to learn baseball.)

Thinking It Over

By Robert L. Dieffenbacher, D.D.
(Written for NEA Service)

Many pressures influence our daily living. Some of these pressures did not concern us very much in years gone by, when our lives were less complex. When we depended less on delicate mechanisms than we do now, we did not know that these pressures existed.

Water pressure and air pressure determine the results of certain pieces of equipment. Electric power, steam pressure, gas pressure and other physical pressures influence individual living.

The greatest pressures which weigh upon us are mental and emotional pressures which cramp our souls. The pressures of society, of economics, of politics, of advertising and scores of other man-made influences change our daily living.

If we are going to control and use these complex pressures, we must have the inner pressure of the presence of God. He alone can maintain the balance in our daily living which we need in order to find peace of mind, and comfort for the soul.
